

The Do Not Call Law has made a big difference in the amount of call we receive at dinner time and on week-ends and in general. We no longer have to jump up to answer a sales call and argue with the person on the other end of the line. Please do not repeal this law.